Dear Andres Marrugo,

On behalf of the SPIE DCS Rising Researchers selection committee, it is my pleasure to inform you that you have been selected as a Rising Researchers for DCS 2019. Congratulations! The evaluators scored each applicant on the following areas:

1. Leadership: Does the applicant's work show a record of service and leadership?
2. Technical: Does the applicant's work advance scientific or product development in a significant way?
3. Communications: Does the applicant provide a clear picture of how their work fits in to the broader scientific picture?

Your application excelled in all of these categories.

As a 2019 Rising Researcher, we would like to promote you and your involvement in the DCS conference program. Among the things that we need from you are:

1. A high-resolution headshot
2. A 4 sentence biography
3. 6-10 technical or professional keywords that you would like associated with your package
4. Any social media handles that you use and would like promoted / linked
